The Firm

Straw and Pearce is a well-established law firm with offices in Loughborough and Leicester. We are a modern, progressive law firm with progression opportunities across the firm.

The Role

A Criminal defence solicitor is required to join our existing and well established team dealing with both legal aid and privately funded work. The successful candidate will preferably be a qualified duty solicitor with at least 1 years PQE gained at an established criminal law department with a good grounding in all areas of criminal law. Core duties include Police Station and Magistrate Court representation as well as Crown Court preparation. You will also be required to be on our out of office hours rota.

There will also be opportunities to undertake Regulatory work if this is of interest to the candidate.

We offer a competitive salary and work alongside a friendly and professional team. Please email your CV to jball@strawandpearce.co.uk
